St. Clair named Hopkins Education Foundation Executive Director

Jennifer St. Clair has been named the Executive Director of the Hopkins Education Foundation (HEF). She will begin her role June 3, 2013.

“I am excited to continue to contribute to an organization dedicated to helping our schools and our children,” said St. Clair. “My family is very proud to be part of Hopkins schools and I have enjoyed being an active volunteer in the district for the past 11 years.”

St. Clair has served on the Board of Directors for Hopkins Education Foundation and has provided invaluable leadership in chairing the auction for the past three years. Jennifer has two children in the district and her family has three generations connected to Hopkins. In fact, her father-in-law, Dr. Robert St. Clair, was the first principal at West Junior High from 1967-1988.

St. Clair has a degree from the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana. She has worked in Sales/Management for Campbell Soup and J.M. Smucker Company.

St. Clair will work closely with the board of directors and key volunteers in leading HEF’s mission to enrich educational experiences for Hopkins Public Schools.

She can be contacted at 952-988-4097. Please join the HEF Board in welcoming Jennifer.
